Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Mr. Moss was charged with fourth degree assault, domestic violence, Yakima County District Court, case number 4Z1056008, on November 23, 2014.

According to a Yakima County Sheriff's Office report, incident number 14C18429, the defendant, Jason Moss, assaulted his girlfriend on November 23, 2014. According to the victim, the defendant grabbed her by the hair and began punching her with a closed fist. Once the victim fell to the floor, Mr. Moss kicked her in the rib area, and he also stomped her on the head and chest. When the victim was contacted by law enforcement, the deputy observed a large contusion on the right side of her forehead. The contusion was about 2.5 inches wide and 1.5 inches long and was sticking off her forehead significantly. She also had dark red marks next to her left eye and cheek, as well as red marks on the left side of her chest.

The victim went to the hospital and was told she had sustained significant chest wall bruising and internal bruising of her rib area. She was also told to return to the hospital if she started to exhibit symptoms of a concussion because she likely sustained a concussion due to the
